

Q. Indemnification

The event organization shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the City of Salina, its officers, officials, employees, and agents from and against any liability, loss, damage, expense, and costs (including without limitation costs and fees of litigation) of every nature arising out of or in connection with the events conducted hereunder, including, but not limited to, injuries or damages caused to participants, officials, and spectators, or damage to any property, or its failure to comply with any of its obligations contained in the application or permit, except such loss or damage which was caused by the sole negligence or willful misconduct of the City of Salina.